Putting one foot in front of another is a cinch when you do it regularly but it isn't so easy if you've been lying almost motionless in bed for more than five weeks. Beverly J. Barrett, 19-year-old Stowe girl, who suffered a fractured pelvis in an auto crash, tries it with the help of Memorial hospital's walker. Although she was fearful she might not be able to walk again for a long time, she made such rapid strides, so to speak, that she was able to go home a few hours after this photo was made yesterday.

Serious Injury Can't Cripple Girl's Spirit

A 19-year-old Stowe girl, who lay on her back in Memorial hospital for five weeks, wondering would she be able to walk when she got up, provided herself with the answer in near-record time. It's Yes!

Beverly J. Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Barrett, 547 East Race street, Stowe, suffered a fractured pelvis in a head-on crash of two cars on Route 83 near Spring City the past April 20. She was a car passenger.

4 Area Youths Leave for Armed Forces Induction

Four Pottstown area youths received a send-off yesterday by parents, friends, the Salvation Army, the veterans and fraternal committee of Pottstown, and, of course, R. Ross Longaker, clerk of Local Board 110, who gave them one-way tickets to the Schuylkill Arsenal on the 7:17 a. m. train.

The youths will be inducted into the Army or the Marine corps.

Robert F. Kirlin, 26 West Fifth street, was in charge of the group which included Alvin N. Williams, 710 Mintzer street; Charles L. Nester, 535 Spruce street; and Philip F. Segneri, Linfield. A fifth man from Philadelphia, Georgij Tscherniawski, filled out the draft board's quota.

The Salvation Army, under the direction of Senior Capt. Meral E. Cox, served coffee and doughnuts to the draftees at borough hall and at the station.

THE VETERANS and Fraternal Committee passed out cigarettes to the youths who will soon be wearing the uniforms of the United States Army.

JAYCEES BEGIN BOROUGH TOUR FOR 'EYESORES'

Junior Chamber Tells Property Owners of Beauty Detracting Spots

The Pottstown Junior Chamber of Commerce began its tour of the borough yesterday spotting "eyesores" and informing owners of the properties which detracted from the beauty of Pottstown.

As part of its "clean-up, paint-up, fix-up" week, the Jaycees asked property owners to clear their lots.

Yesterday was only a preliminary tour for the all-out campaign which will reach its peak tomorrow when the Jaycees will turn out en masse and inspect the entire borough.

One of the spots which the Jaycees feel should be cleaned immediately is the field alongside the bus barn at Moser and High streets.

THE OWNER of this property cannot be located so the Jaycees have asked the Boy Scouts of Pottstown's Troop 4 to lend a hand in the program to beautify Pottstown. The Scouts will clean the field and will work on all entrances to Pottstown and cut down overgrown weeds.

Another unsightly spot the Jaycees said is at Hanover street near Eighth street. Here there are several lots which need cleaning. High grass is growing in spots on the lots, a haven for rats.

The Jaycees have found that most of the borough's home owners have been co-operative in complying with requests to follow the clean-up program.

Most private lots are already (Continued on Page Seven)

Business Halt Is Planned for Memorial Day

Business will come to a standstill in Pottstown Friday as plants, banks, stores and schools shut their doors in observance of Memorial Day.

Workers at Bethlehem Steel company, Spicer Manufacturing division of the Dana corporation, Doehler-Jarvis corporation and Stanley G. Flagg company will get a three-day holiday as their plants close down Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

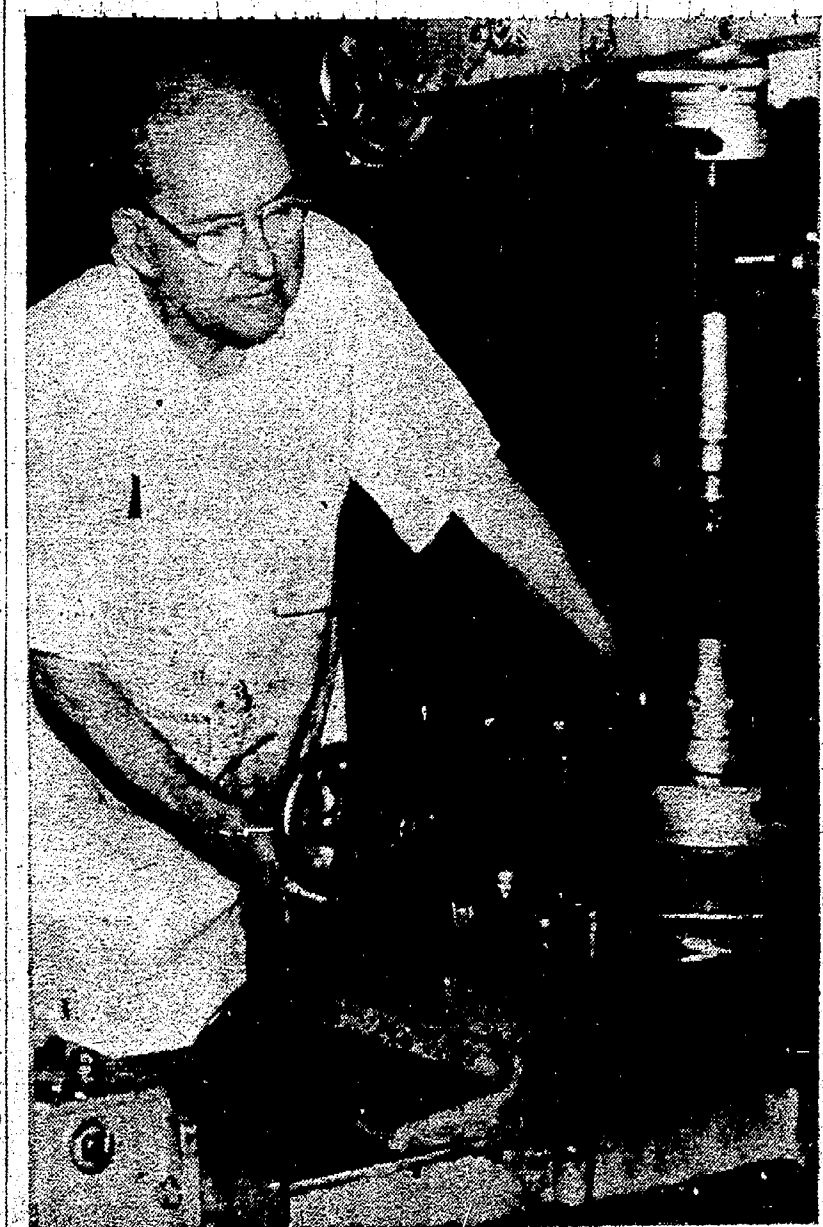

Pottstown stores will remain open tomorrow night until 9 o'clock, giving holiday shoppers almost 12 hours to purchase Memorial Day needs. The stores will be closed Friday, but will reopen Saturday as usual at 9:30 a. m.

Only special delivery letters will be delivered on Memorial Day by the post office. The lobby will be open for the owners of lock box mail from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. but all the stamp windows will be closed.

OTHER PUBLIC offices, including the State Employment Service (Continued on Page Seven)

C. Robert Landin, a Doehler diemaker for 40 years, ready to retire July 1, who remembers the day when all the workers in the diemaking industry could go on a medium-sized picnic, keeps a steady eye on a diemaking operation in one of the huge machines in the sprawling Pottstown plant of Doehler-Jarvis corporation. ## Graduation Can Be Expensive

Nancy Werner, 18, of 17 Chestnut street and James Miller, 18, of 55 Cedar avenue are engrossed in computing how much their graduation from Pottstown Senior High school June 5—and all its related social functions—is going to cost their parents and themselves. Miss Werner figures the bill for clothing, prom dresses, announcements and name cards, class trip to New York, photographs, class dues and graduation gifts will cost her family about $207.75. Miller claims a fellow and his family can ease through commencement for as little as $52 or as much as $200.

Paying for Graduation Makes Families' Pocketbooks Collapse

By ED ZUMACH
(Mercury Staff Writer)

A lot of Pottstown area checking accounts have been squealing "Uncle!" the past few weeks because hundreds of pupils in area high schools are preparing to "face the world," as the commencement speakers say.

The bank rolls have been losing weight rapidly as many of the Seniors' proud parents shell out the cold cash that will bedeck their offspring in new clothes for the big occasion itself and the related social functions that will become part of the youngsters' mental scrapbooks.

Included in the bills that have been piling up on many fathers' desks of late are those for photographs of their sons and daughters in the traditional cap and gown and others for graduation announcements and name cards.

There also are the bills for graduation gifts and, if a class trip to another city is scheduled, a stub in the checkbook makes note of it.

IN A few cases this game of squeeze the bank account is just a trial run. Parents who intend financing their youngsters way through college learn quickly what the financial course is like and how much dollar energy they'll need to sustain them until the next graduation rolls around four years hence.

Parents of male graduates have been "discovering" they are in a more desirable spot than those of female graduates.

More of their youngsters have part-time jobs than the girls do and can help bear the expense of their leaving high school.

Even in a comparison of parents both of boys and girls who work after classes, the boys' parents are better off because the boys usually earn more than the girls.

AFTER LUNCH at the hotel they will board sightseeing buses for a four-hour lecture tour of downtown New York and Chinatown, and a boat trip to the Statue of Liberty.

The seniors will eat dinner at the Iceland restaurant and watch a one-hour floor show as they eat their meals.

After dinner, there will be dancing to two orchestras at the restaurant, to be followed later in the evening by country games and square dances.

Tomorrow the day's activities will begin with breakfast in the hotel's dining room.

Schools Stage Programs Prior To Graduations

Class night programs last night highlighted the pre-commencement activities of the Senior classes of East Greenville and Schwenksville High schools, both of which will be graduated tomorrow night.

The East Greenville class night program was a three-act skit built on the "Cinderella" theme in which all Seniors took part. The skit was written by members of the class.

Schwenksville High school Seniors chose a party theme for their program, decorating the stage of the school auditorium like a living room. The program featured the distribution of gifts to class members to suit their personalities.

An estimated 500 persons attended the East Greenville class night, which was opened by an orchestral selection and an address by Ronald Bardman, Senior class president. The presentation of the class of '67 by Harold Moyer, Jeanette Bartman, William Lienhos and Arlene Hagenbuch was a part of the first act of the Cinderella skit.

DURING THE second act, which took place at the palace ball, the class prophecy was given by Faith Nunan, Franklin Skepton, Margaret Stauffer and Richard Sell. The mantle of the Senior class was passed on from Bardman to Alton Shelly, Junior class president, during the third act.

Musical selections were woven into all three acts of the skit. There was an accordion solo by Nancy Sacks, piano solos by Gordon Heimbach and Russell Geissinger, a vocal solo by Helene Nestler and a vocal duet by Sarah Godshall and Clea Gilbert.

The Senior class song, sung by the entire class, was written by Miss Hagenbuch. The audience joined the class in singing the school's alma mater.

500 Are Due At Historical Home Opening

More than 500 visitors are expected to attend the official opening of Pottsgrove manor Saturday.

Fifty women in colonial attire will welcome guests to the stone mansion built by John Potts, founder of Pottstown. The reception will begin at 2 o'clock and the program will follow an hour later.

Mrs. James I. Wendell, president of Pottstown Historical society; Mrs. Henry Colbath, chairman of the hospitality committee; and Lieut. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood, of Evansburg, principal speaker, will greet all visitors.

Wood may arrive at the scene in a colonial carriage. Other hostesses will be stationed in the individual rooms of the old stone house to welcome visitors.

Speaking at the opening will be Wood, a member of the State Historical and Museum commission, and Burgess William A. Griffith.

The invocation will be pronounced by the Rev. Howard A. Kosman, pastor of Zion's Reformed church. The flag will be raised by Fred H. Kelley.

SCHOOL CHILDREN will donate a white pine tree which will be planted north of the house. The planting will be in charge of Robert Mallison, president of the Senior class.

Chamber Votes To Pay Costs Of Air Show

The board of directors of the Pottstown Chamber of Commerce voted unanimously yesterday to underwrite the $1500 Bicentennial Air show which will be staged at the municipal airport Sunday, Aug. 24.

James S. Wilke, president of the Chamber of Commerce, signed the contract for the show immediately after the directors' meeting. The vote was taken at the Brookside (Continued on Page Twenty-four)

Two Slightly Hurt As Car Hits Pole

Two young Pottstown area men escaped with minor injuries when their 1937 sedan smashed into a telephone pole along Route 663 near 73, breaking it off near the base.

The 19-year-old driver, William G. Silvano Jr., 443½ Walnut street, had cuts of the nose. His 26-year-old passenger, Joseph E. Grove, Pottstown RD 4, had cuts of the right knee and bruises of the left arm. Both treated themselves.

Silvano told Jeffersonville State Troopers Carl F. Ziegler and John J. Flannery that he was going south on Route 663 when he ran off the highway. The entire front end of the 15-year-old car was wrecked. Loss was estimated at $200 for the car and $100 for the pole.

A spokesman for Metropolitan Edison company said only one subscriber was affected by the break. The pole was replaced by mid-morning.

Air Raid 'Alert' Hardly Noticed

A token civil defense "alert" yesterday morning in Pottstown met with general indifference.

The "alert" plan was centered in Philadelphia, where full-scale civil defense procedure was followed. Montgomery county was included, but the "alert" was confined to sounding of a siren and efforts to have civilians take cover. Traffic was not stopped.

The borough hall alarm sounded at 9:35 o'clock, and the all-clear 10 minutes later. Foot traffic continued generally except at points where police urged pedestrians to take cover.

Raphael Teitlebaum Holding His Own In Surgery Recovery

Raphael Teitlebaum, 38-year-old chief metallurgist of Spicer Manufacturing division of the Dana corporation, who was operated on for removal of a brain tumor the past May 20, is "doing fairly well" and should be released from the hospital in about three weeks.

This was reported yesterday by physicians of the University of Pennsylvania's Graduate hospital, Philadelphia, where he is a patient. His condition still is regarded as critical.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Teitlebaum, who flew East from Toledo, Ohio, to be at his bedside, are still at the hospital. The son lives at North Washington and North streets.

Man Thrown From 'Cycle, Scalp Is Cut

A 23-year-old Colebrookdale man, LeRoy A. Yoder, suffered a deep laceration of the scalp and other injuries last night when his motorcycle went out of control and crashed against a bank on Shoemaker road, near the Robinson Clay Products company.

Dazed by the impact, Yoder was unable to recall what happened. He told police his motorcycle went out of control.

A Good Will ambulance driven by Harry Bachman, assisted by Walter Sloudt, took Yoder to Pottstown hospital.

He was admitted for observation and X-rays today after six sutures were used to close the laceration in his scalp. He also suffered lacerations of the face and arms and brush burns of the back, arms and legs.

Sgt. Harold E. Hahn and Motor Patrolman Paul I. Galloway investigated.

Pennsburg Boy Hurt When Hit By Station Wagon

A 5-year-old Pennsburg boy was injured slightly when he was struck by a station wagon on Main street near Seventh street in Pennsburg, it was reported yesterday by Jeffersonville State police.

The driver, William Q. Allebach, 46, East Greenville RD 1, service station proprietor, said he was driving south on Main street (Route 29) when the boy suddenly appeared about 6 feet in front of his car, 10 to 15 feet away from the pedestrian crosswalk at the high school.

The boy, Leon Leonard, 822 Main street, Pennsburg, had brush burns of the legs and arms and over the left eye.

Allebach drove the boy to two doctors' offices, but neither was at home. He then took the boy to the boy's home and called Dr. William S. Kistler, who came there.

Allebach said the boy said a bigger boy pushed him. The accident happened Monday afternoon.

Allebach reported it to State police Monday night. Trooper Robert E. Mulligan investigated.

Trash Collector Sets Schedule for Holiday

16 Graduated At Pennsburg High School

With baskets of carnations, gladioli and white pompons at their feet 16 Seniors of Pennsburg High school stepped out into the world after commencement exercises last night.

More than 400 friends and parents gathered in the Aurora theater to hear Dr. Edward H. Snow, principal of Ardmore Junior High school, tell the graduates their biggest contribution to the world is service.

The veteran educator spoke on the topic, "Thoroughbreds—The Fighting Hearts," and referred to athletes who had made the grade because of their spirit.

Ruth Ritz, valedictorian, Nancy Nace, salutatorian, and Carl Snyder, third-ranking pupil in the class, gave brief talks.

MISS RITZ received the Lions and alumni awards, both medals, the Upper Merion Women's Club award, and the Readers' Digest award.

Miss Nace was presented the Rotary, Danforth foundation for girls and Gregg typing awards. Snyder was given the American Legion citizenship award, the Danforth foundation award for boys and an orchestra award for work with the school orchestra.

Elizabeth Conover won the American Legion essay award for her essay written on the theme, "Unite for Freedom."

Lester Miller received a Gregg typing award and Harold Specht got the Roy Updegrave Rapp Memorial award given annually to the Senior who has displayed general all-around excellence during his school career.

The glee club opened with "Let There be Song" after the professional. Marfa Miller, Susan Blank, Jane Landis and Patty Ritz collaborated for a vocal presentation of "The Lord's Prayer."

THE REV. Henry M. Kistler, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, Pennsburg, pronounced the invocation. Snyder followed with the welcoming address and Nora Kline and Joan Landis sang "After Graduation Day."

After the salutatory talk Betty Conover recited the class poem and the glee club sang.

of 586 patient days during the same period.

POLLOCK REPORTED 330 admissions during April which totaled 2300 patient days.

A check of $1400 will be sent to the hospital by the inter-community auxiliary for hospital equipment. Announcement of the presentation was made by Mrs. J. Carroll Deisher, president of the auxiliary, at the group's annual dinner meeting in Spring-Ford Country club on Monday night.

Pollock told the board what the check represents in equipment. It will include the purchase of an electric water cooler with a glass filling attachment for use outside the dining rooms, a six-shelf steel tray truck to be used to transport patients' meal trays from the kitchen to various departments.

Also a mobile sitz bath unit in the form of a chair to be used on patients after rectal operations. The unit includes an electric heater and water pan and is designed to be moved from room to room.

ALSO, a one-wheel stretcher which requires the care of a single nurse and is easier on the patient. By turning a crank the nurse can tilt the patient gently onto a bed.

Bicentennial Queen Honored by Lions

Pottstown Lions honored the bicentennial queen and five members of her court last night.

Queen Marty Lou Smale, Arlene Shaffer, Doris Seibold, Dolores Pirodhak, Claudia Elicker and Joan Keim were presented gold bracelets at the session in the Eagles Home association with 50 Lions looking on.

Mrs. James I. Wendell, president of Pottstown Historical society, spoke on the history of early Pottstown, the opening of Pottgrove manor on Saturday and the publication of a three-part book on borough history in connection with the bicentennial.

The Rev. Laurence T. Beers, pastor of First Baptist church, and Charles Boyle celebrated birthday anniversaries. Albert E. Willauer, first vice president, was in charge.

FRATERNITY MEN OUSTED

Employers May Give Pay on May 31, July 5

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—The Wage Stabilization board (WSB) told employers today they may give Saturday, May 31 and Saturday, July 5, as holidays with pay to all employees who normally work on Saturdays.

With industry members of the WSB dissenting, the WSB majority ruled that allowing the two days off would not prejudice any wage or salary increases employers may be allowed to grant under WSB anti-inflation wage regulations.

May 31 and July 5 are the Saturdays following the Memorial and Independence Day holidays.

FEES NOT REQUIRED

Faith Brings Peace, Truman Tells Group

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—President Truman said today that Americans—"with faith in God and trust in our fellow man"—are sure to win permanent peace. In a message to the 164th annual General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the U.S.A., he said:

"The religious feeling of the American people is one of our sources of national strength—a strength we are now mobilizing together with the other free peoples of the world in defense of our cherished ideals of liberty and justice.

"With faith in God and trust in our fellow man, we can not fail to attain the hope of all mankind—lasting peace and universal justice."

The message, read by the Rev. Jean S. Milner of Indianapolis, the Colorado and narrower between byterian's national missions board, which is celebrating its 150th anniversary.

More than 2000 Presbyterian leaders, including representatives of each of the church's 259 local Presbyteries, are attending sessions of the church's top governing body which end tomorrow.

Farmer Guards Fields From 'Potato Nappers'

ALTUS, Okla., May 27 (AP)—Farmer Jack Colville has placed a 24-hour guard over his irrigated potato fields near here to save the rest of his valuable crop from "potato nappers."

Colville said today thieves recently dug and carted off most of the potatoes in a quarter acre tract. He said the thieves, spurred by a potato shortage, tried to conceal their work by burrowing under the vines from the side, stealing the potatoes from the roots and then pushing the dirt back around the vine.

TRIAL IS PREDICTED

MOSCOW, May 27 (AP)—The Berin correspondent of the Literary Gazette predicted today that West Germans will some day put West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer on trial for signing the con- tractural agreement with the U. S., Britain and France.

Interference Feared In Queen's Family Life

LONDON, May 27 (AP)—British club women voiced fears today that young Queen Elizabeth's public duties may interfere with her home and family life.

Five thousand delegates to the annual meeting of the National Federation of Women's Institutes resolved unanimously that the Nation "should endeavor not to overwork our beloved young queen."

Demo Senators Block Billion Aid Slash; Another Proposal to Cut Funds Due Today

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—Democratic leaders in the Senate staved off a new cut of a billion dollars in the foreign aid bill today, but face a tough fight tomorrow to defeat a half billion dollar reduction. President Truman recommended a $7,900,000,000 bill to strengthen foreign nations against Communism in the year starting July 1, 1952. The Senate Foreign Relations committee decided that $6,900,000,000 was enough, and reduced the measure to that amount. Senator Welker (R-Ida) and 10 other Republicans called for another billion dollar slash, which would have chopped the mutual security program down to $5,900,000,000. They were defeated 35 to 27 on a rollcall vote. Defeated in that, Welker and his associates are sponsoring a proposal for a cut of a half billion, which may draw significantly more support when it is voted on tomorrow.

SENATOR CARLSON (R-Kan), one of the leaders of the Eisenhower-for-President movement, said today he will vote to cut 500 million from the bill. He voted against the billion dollar cut. Carlson's statement to a reporter aroused special interest because Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, retiring chief of the North Atlantic Treaty forces, has said, with reservations, that any further substantial reductions in the foreign aid bill might threaten American security. Carlson has just returned from a conference with Eisenhower in Paris, but he said they did not discuss the bill. The House has authorized $6,162,600,000 for military and economic aid to friendly nations during the next fiscal year. Originally, President Truman asked for $7,900,000,000. The Senate foreign relations committee recommended an across-the-board cut of one billion from this figure.

SENATOR GEORGE (D-Ga) argued that any further reduction would open the way for the Russians to say "we told you so" to Western European nations allied with the United States against Communism. The psychological effect, George said, would be especially harmful at this time, when the Allies have just signed the peace contract with western Germany and completed arrangements to bring the Ger-

New Mobile Canteen For Salvation Army Discussed by Club

The Pottstown Inter-Service club at a luncheon meeting yesterday afternoon at 12:10 o'clock at the Shuler House discussed plans for purchasing a new mobile canteen for the Salvation Army.

Bids from three local companies to supply the truck put the cost at approximately $3000. Each member club of the Inter-Service club would be required to pay its pro-rata share of the cost if the plan is approved by the individual clubs.

Those organizations which would be responsible for payment are the Kiwanis club, the Lions club, the American Business club, the soroptimist club and the Optimist club.

STANLEY I. Davenport, chairman of the Inter-Service club's meeting yesterday and president of the Kiwanis club, said that the present truck used by the Salvation Army provides dependable service.

This is readily understandable, he continued, when one takes into consideration the more than 150,000 miles on the vehicle in addition to the fact that it is a 1942 model.

Proposals were first made at last month's club meeting to purchase the new truck.

It is expected that the various member clubs should turn in their final decisions at next month's CHANCELLOR LEAVES

Leopold Figl, chancellor of Austria, left for home today saying, "he will do all in his full freedom and independence."

Communists Sound Threat of Loosing New Blows in Korea

MUNSAN, Korea, Wednesday, May 28 (AP)—The bitter and prolonged Korean armistice talks entered a more critical phase today with a blunt Communist threat of new blows on the battlefield.

After nearly 11 months of wearying negotiations a truce seemed farther away than ever—but both sides agreed to meet again today at Panmunjom at 11 a. m. (6 p. m., Pottstown time, Tuesday).

The top truce teams reconvened Tuesday after a three-day recess. Even before the Allied delegation took their seats in the dusty, weather-bleached tent, North Korean Gen. Nam Il said angrily, "The Korean Peoples Army and the Chinese Peoples Volunteers decidedly cannot sit by while seeing their captured fellow combatants being slaughtered by your side at will."

It was a reference to Communist charges of maltreatment of Red prisoners—a charge constantly repeated at Panmunjom and by Red propaganda broadcasts—but this time it was much stronger.

(A PEIPING broadcast heard by the Associated Press in San Francisco said if the Allies refuse to yield on the prisoner issue "the alternative is continued war with American responsibility nakedly exposed to the world.")

(The broadcast was quoting a dispatch by Alan Winnington, correspondent for the Communist London Daily Worker at Panmunjom. He often foreshadows Red truce delegation views.)

Maj. Gen. William Harrison Jr., senior Allied delegate, said he regarded Nam Il's statement as "a pure propaganda speech." Brig. Gen. William P. Nuekols, United Nations command spokesman, said it could be interpreted as a threat.

In Tokyo only the past Friday, Gen. Mark Clark—U. N. top military commander, said he was aware of a big Red buildup in Korea.

TUESDAY'S TRUCE session got nowhere—as usual. Harrison said again the Allied offer to return 70,000 Communist prisoners for some 12,000 Allied captives was final and fair. Nam Il assailed it.

Prisoner exchange is the key issue blocking an armistice. The Allies refuse to return prisoners to Red rule against their will.

After Nam Il's acid comment, Harrison quietly repeated a standing Allied suggestion—that the Communists themselves observe a screening of Red prisoners. Harrison added:

"This would be a simple means of publicly determining the truth or falsity of the charges of coercion which have been levelled against the United Nations command."

Gl's Work to Split Koje POWs

KOJE ISLAND, Korea, Wednesday, May 28 (AP)—Army engineers are working around the clock to complete separation stockades for the rebellious Communist war prisoners on troubled Koje island.

Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, Koje's new commander, will split up the compounds of 5000 to 6000 prisoners into smaller compounds, to enclose 500 prisoners each. It is aimed at assuring firmer control.

Informed sources said Tuesday the Red leaders of the 6000 tough prisoners in Compound No. 95—scene of rioting April 10—had sent Boatner word they were ready to obey his orders.

Boatner reportedly told the Reds he would not confer with them until they complied with certain provisions—including the delivery of the bodies of eight prisoners killed in the April riot.

A HUGE crane-mounted dragline was working outside Compound 76 to determine whether the Reds had dug escape tunnels. By midnight Tuesday the big bucket had dug four feet deep in a wide area but had exposed no tunnels. The work was continuing.

It was in Compound 76 that Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd was seized May 7 and held for three days. Dodd was released after embarrassing concessions were promised by his temporary successor, Brig. Gen. Charles Colson. Both men have been demoted to colonel because of the episode.

Boatner, a China-wise veteran of the Burma campaign in World War II, replaced Colson and has since shaken up the Koje administrative staff.

Col. Maurice J. Fitzgerald, deputy commander since February, Bayonne, N. J., was replaced as left Tuesday for Pusan to become executive officer by Lt. Col. R. C. police adviser to the Korean government (hometown unavailable).

ernment. He was replaced by Col. Military police reinforcements Harold Taylor of Washington, D. C. have been arriving on Koje in increasing numbers during the past week.

LT. COL. John F. Moran of week.

White sidewalls optional at extra cost.

It gives this old familiar sign new meaning

WOULD you be interested in getting one gallon free with each tankful of gasoline you buy?

Then we can tell you this: It will certainly be worth your while to read this brief story of Buick's new Airpower carburetor.

Truth is—a skillful driver can just about double the bonus we mention, if he makes the most of what this year's ROADMASTER has to offer.

Most of the time, only two of these barrels are needed—and they feed such a thrifty mixture that you use less gasoline at 40 mph than you'd formerly use at 30.

But—when you want a quick burst of eager power—you can double the air supply as well as the gasoline feed—and come up with the highest horsepower that Buick's Fireball 8 Engine ever delivered.

He wants to ride with solid security, confident poise and lordly silence.

And, while he may not admit it, he yearns for a car that's full of fun.

All this, we promise you, and more will be yours when you take the responsive wheel of a ROADMASTER.

How about doing that—soon?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

- The reason you can get such a bonus traces to a pair of simple facts:
- (1) It's a mixture of gasoline and air that gives you power.
  - (2) Buick engineers have come up with a four-barrel automatic carburetor that lets you use more gallons of air per gallon of fuel.

Of course, any man who's buying a car as fine as a ROADMASTER wants a lot more than extra miles from a tankful of gas.

He wants the distinction of extra room, extra comfort, richer fabrics and all the other refinements that make a car truly fine.

The younger boy, whose mother stands beside him, wore a chest respirator most of the way, while Saxton made the entire trip in an iron lung. High Rating Given To Scouts of Troop 4 On Their Inspection

Scouts of Troop 4, First Methodist church, Monday night received better than a 90 percent rating on all classifications at troop inspection by Robert Weller, neighborhood commissioner.

Clarence Hillborn, a member of district advancement committee, presided at a court of honor at which James Creswell was rated on firemanship.

Scouts discussed a pre-camporee at Shellbark farm, Gilbertsville road, Pottstown RD 3, this past weekend. Twenty boys and leaders of Troop 4 and Troop 1, a new troop of Cedar Grove chapel attended.

Troop 1 members were invited as guests of Troop 4. Boys camped in the rain Friday and Saturday, and Sunday morning evacuated their tents as Sprogel's run nearly spilled over its banks.

DURING contests on Saturday the Flaming Arrow patrol won the treasure hunt which consisted of morse code and compass work. The patrol also won the equipment race and the water boiling contest.

The Black Panther patrol received the string-burning award and Edward Wippy won the blind compass contest.

James Creswell served as master of ceremonies during the council camp fire at which games were played and skits were run off.

The camporee was held on the farm of David Emery, a member of the troop committee.

When Scouts evacuated their quarters Sunday they dried out in the Emery farm house. Mrs. Emery assisted boys in drying clothes and scraping muddy shoes.

Three Students Fined In College Party Raid

BURLINGTON, Vt., May 27 (AP)—Municipal Judge Joseph C. McNeil fined three University of Vermont party leaders today and asked them to consider what troops in Korea must think of such college frivolity.

"Those boys are about the same age as you," Judge McNeil said. "What do you think would be the moral effect of such an incident on them?" The boys made no attempt to answer.

Judge McNeil imposed fines of $35 each for breaking the peace and costs of $10 each on Robert Hatch Jr., 19, Tenally, N. J.; Erwin Schneider, 19, Brooklyn, N. Y., and John Samuelson, 18, New York. All pleaded no contest. The case of a fourth student, Harry Varney, 19, Morgantown, W. Va. who pleaded innocent, was continued until May 31.

RIDGWAY BACK IN FRANCE AGAIN, TAKES NEW JOB

20,000 French Police Guard Motor Route Against Demonstrators

PARIS, May 27 (AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway came back to France today to take command of the North Atlantic defense forces, confident he could make a 14-nation army in Europe work as well as the 16-nation army in Korea.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower went to Orly air field to welcome his successor, who parachuted into Normandy on D-Day in World War II and recently directed United Nations forces in Korea.

Ridgway was guarded along his route by 20,000 French police, posted to beat off threatened Communist demonstrations. Only one minor incident developed and it ended quickly with a few arrests.

In clusters of ten to 300, the police were stationed from Orly field along the 15-mile route to the Arc de Triumpe and, more thinly, all the way out to Versailles, where Ridgway will live temporarily.

MRS. EISENHOWER accompanied the supreme commander to welcome Ridgway and his family at the airport. Eisenhower was in a gay humor, despite a minor eye infection that caused him to wear dark glasses.

Ridgway, with his wife Penny at his side, was met by a large French delegation headed by War Minister Rene Pleven.

Back of Ridgway came a non-commissioned officer carrying 3-year-old Matt, Jr., the general's son, who was clutching a brown and tan stuffed dog. With them was a blue-clad Japanese nurse.

Ridgway landed on the day six foreign ministers of Western Europe and the foreign ministers of Britain and the United States were here for the signing of the European army treaty, which is to add West Germany to the defense bulwark built up by the 14 members of the North Atlantic pact.

AFTER introductions to the French officials, Ridgway greeted Eisenhower and British Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery. Then he turned to Mrs. Eisenhower and Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, Eisenhower's chief of staff, who will stay on in the same job under Ridgway.

Later Ridgway held a news conference.

He noted that the plane bringing him from Washington crossed the French coast at almost the same point as the plane in which he flew into France in June, 1944.

"The coast looked much better than it did then," he said.

He expressed confidence in the leadership of Eisenhower and said "if I am able to add to anything he has done, I shall be pleased indeed."

Asked whether his experience leading an army of mixed nationalities in Korea would be useful here, he replied:

"What I saw in Korea is something on which we can rest solid hope."

"There we had 16 nations of all languages and creeds mixed in the fighting forces. They had pride in their organization and found complete mutual confidence in battle."

"If we can do that in one place, in spite of barriers of language, difference in food and other factors, I have no reason to believe that it cannot be done elsewhere."

Did he expect military action from the Soviets?

"Anything which is a capability is always a possibility," Ridgway said. "There is great capability there. I would not want to go any farther."

He declined comment on the European army he will be expected to aid in forming. He would not comment on whether cuts made by Congress in U. S. appropriations would hurt European defense. That latter, he said, is a political matter.

Correspondents found him affable. At the behest of one newsman, he began a detailed explanation of what had happened among the Communist prisoners at Kojima island, but an aide pointed out quickly that his time was up.

Eucharistic Congress Begins

BARCELONA, Spain, May 27 (AP)—Before a golden altar in Barcelona's high-arched Gothic Roman Cathedral, Federico Cardinal Tedeschini tonight formally opened the 35th Eucharistic Congress.

The cardinal is the person representative of Pope Pius XII at the meeting, which celebrates the Holy Sacrament. The last one was held 14 years ago in Budapest, Hungary.

Nine cardinals in brilliant robes, including Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, were seated at the right of the altar as Cardinal Tedeschini entered the cathedral.

He paused at the altar, removed his hat, bowed to the nine cardinals and then took a seat on inside.

They heard Cardinal Tedeschini praise the efforts which the common people of Spain had made to make the congress a success. He said no other people was more worthy of the honor of organizing this conference than the Spanish.

After Cardinal Tedeschini finished speaking the Holy Eucharist was exposed for veneration. According to Roman Catholic doctrine this bread and wine contains the body and blood of Christ.

It commemorates the Last Supper when Christ, offering bread both and wine, told his disciples to continue this practice in commemoration of him.

Generalissimo Francisco Franco is scheduled to make a triumphal entry into the city tomorrow for the congress.

Outside the cathedral, hundreds of thousands who had been unable to gain entrance jammed the streets. Loudspeakers brought to Sheriff's deputies arrested three male students and were hunting a fourth.

One of the girls, Shirley Bledsoe, 18, of Hobart, Okla., apparently had stopped breathing when she was brought to a hospital. She was revived with oxygen but remained in a serious condition for several hours.

White House Supports Lobby Formed To Battle Private Power Utilities Voice

WASHINGTON, May 27 (UP)—An informal lobby to battle private power companies is being formed by the White House, according to a speech yesterday that helped fight public power's battle with private utilities was launched today with White House blessing.

Fourteen labor, farm, electric, cooperative and public power organizations, closing a two-day conference, agreed to set up an "Electric Consumer Conference committee" in Washington.

About the time the group acted Rep. Dondero (R-Mich.) introduced a resolution in the House to investigate it.

The resolution called for a determination of the "alleged or actual sponsors" of the conference, and whether they are "using their resources for un-American and subversive activities or for purposes not in the interest or tradition of the United States."

DONDERO DECLARED in a House speech that the conference was a "pressure group publicity stunt" designed to assure Federal appropriations to the Interior department for public power.

President Truman told the conference in a speech yesterday that the private power industry in America must be cleaned, "the statement declared also."

IT CALLED on Congress and the regulatory agencies to investigate.

gate, expose, "punish and publicize" all money outlays "by power monopolists for propaganda, lobbying, political activity or corruption of public servants."

Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee took time from his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination to send the 500 delegates a brief message. He called on them to "shatter the drive of the private power lobby" saying:

"I urge you to create a continuing and militant consumers' lobby. It is time for the people's voice to be heard in Washington."

Senators Aiken (R-Vt.) and Humphrey (D-Minn.) brought similar appeals in person.

"The political arm of the power companies is far better organized today than is either the Republican or the Democratic party," Aiken declared. "In some spheres it is actually the dominant political influence."

HUMPHREY assailed the "vicious forces" which he said were opposing not only public power development but low-income housing and other social programs.

"If we had listened to these same people a few years ago we would not have had enough power to win World War II," Humphrey said. "There wouldn't be enough power today to let us defend ourselves."

The ancient Egyptians were said to knead bread dough with their feet although they worked clay with their hands.

100 View Summer's Newest Fashions At Jewish Womens' League Review

By MARY JANE FEGELY
(Mercury Society Editor)

Brown on white was the fashion combination news last night at the style show held by members of the Jewish Women's league at the annual Membership tea in the vestry room of Mercy and Truth synagog.

Hats to go with the dresses also were featured in the show, which was pleasantly advanced as far as fashions are concerned.

Bold prints, too, were used to good advantage, with exquisite embroidery finishing more formal attire.

A crisp and cool looking two-piece dress in red and white tissue gingham with tailored white linen collar and short cuffed sleeves received nods of approval from the more than 100 women present. The jacket was belted and the skirt featured box pleats stitched up to the hipline. With this was worn a white linen visor-brimmed hat.

Fine black and white stripes were used in the cotton cord suit shown next. Smoke pearl buttons trimmed the jacket and the skirt was gored. The material was wrinkle-shed. A white pique visor brim hat was used for this spectator outfit.

FIT FOR AN afternoon in town or for an evening of informal dancing was the cool two-piece chambray of white blocks on gray background. Smoke pearl buttons decorated the jacket which also featured the new padded hipline. The blocks on the skirt were used diagonally, and the hat worn was of white pique with small ball fringe trim.

Denim, the fabric that is going from the fields into the ballroom, was used in a dress and jacket ensemble. The dress was brown denim with a straight skirt, and was highlighted with a diagonal plaid sleeveless jacket in linen. The sport hat was in denim to match the dress.

An unusual porthole effect was seen in a sun dress of chambray with a diagonal stripe of chocolate brown and white. The halter top was made of the striped material, while the full skirt was of brown. "Portholes" enabled the viewers to see the striped underskirt.

A SHOW STOPPER was a two-piece moygashel linen navy blue dress. The sleeveless tuck-in blouse was trimmed with red and blue fobs and gold stars on one shoulder of the boat-necked bodice. The skirt featured a front inverted pleat. A belt of stitched red, white and blue, and a white ribbon cloche packable hat completed the ensemble.

White moygashel linen again was used in a tailored dress styled with white pearl buttons marching down the entire front. The bodice was trimmed with a Peter Pan collar and a multi-colored ribbon belt was used to accentuate the flared skirt. With this was worn a white ribbon bumper hat with red velvet cord trim.

Another new style was the companion dress. This one was in superfine pastel pink plaid cotton. The dress was very tailored, and over it was worn a pure zephyr wool cardigan sweater bound in plaid to match the dress. The little head-hugging hat also matched the dress.

Horsehair was used for stiffening in the hemline of a lovely gray and white striped French voile dress. Sleeveless, it boasted smoke pearl buttons to the waist, a belt of gray chambray, and a skirt which was plaited through the hipline. The wide fly-away collar was of white. The important accessory was a large white milan straw hat with a straight brim and gray velvet and gray velvet and veil trim.

ON THE PRACTICAL side was a blue corded pique on white. Style consisted of a Peter Pan collar, no sleeves, and a navy blue grosgrain belt, with glass buttons trimming the bodice.

Made for speed and efficiency in dressing was a green linen dress with white linen edging around the sleeveless armholes, collar and down the front of the dress. The skirt was full and gored.

Four stars went to the white red and black stripes seen on a dress made of ticking. Used diagonally, the stripes complimented the deep V neckline and full skirt with a surprise front. Taking hair-dos into consideration, the dress featured a zipper in the back. Brown open circles on white were used on the sheer printed voile with beautifully scalloped neckline edged in solid brown. The boat neckline reached to the very edge of the shoulders and tied there with brown, narrow ribbon. In keeping with this Summer's fashions, the skirt was extremely full. A black and white print, piped with pink and featuring a pink belt was a hit with the audience. The material was pima cloth and was lined with organdy throughout the whole skirt to give body and smooth fit. The hat worn with this was a white Swiss milan clip on sailor with black velvet trim.

Very cute was the black pique dress styled with an empire waistline, boat neck, and short, fitted sleeves. White pearl buttons were used in the back of the bodice and two were used in the front, to form a criss-cross effect. To go with this was a white clip-on hat with black trim.

THE UNUSUAL belt was the eye-catcher on a dress of navy and white checked gingham. White pearl buttons studded the red grosgrain belt which was worn tight around the waist to show off to good advantage the full skirt. The pockets were lined with red as was the little bolero jacket. Hat: white togo straw coolie covered with red dot veiling.

Rich looking royal blue pique made a smart dress with sleeveless bodice, cool, low neckline and silver dollar white buttons for trimming. A polka dot silk hanky accented the hipline. A large white Italian milan hat with manipulated brim and royal blue velvet trim completed the outfit.

Going back to the Twenties for its style was a white shantung with black polka dots. The torso was of midlength trim in black piping. The neckline was high and notched, and the skirt was knife pleated. A large white milan straw hat with black roses and velvet ribbon also was shown.

ANOTHER DRESS deserving a second look was the red and white

PICKS OFFICERS

Mrs. Deisher Re-Elected President of Auxiliary;
Purchases Authorized

Mrs. J. Carroll Deisher was re-elected president of Inter-Community Memorial hospital auxiliary at the annual dinner-meeting Monday night. The group met at Spring-Ford Country club, with 65 members and guests present.

Standing committees were appointed for the coming year, and the auxiliary decided on the purchase of $1401 worth of equipment for the Memorial hospital at Pottstown.

Aiding in the build-up of the treasury was the sum of $750, reported by Mrs. Thomas
Tucker, chairman of the annual Spring dance committee, representing proceeds from the annual dance, held May 16, at the Country club.

Mrs. Ernest Bancroft, treasurer, reported a net balance of $1628 in the treasury.

ACTION ON the purchase of the new equipment for the hospital was taken after a talk by Albert Pollock, business administrator at the hospital, who enumerated a list of things needed by the hospital. The items ordered purchased were:

Chrome collapsible walker with crutches, $125; mobile sitz bath
(chrome U. L. approved), $157;

Sirens Aren't Audible

In All Parts of Town

The test of Royersford's warning system during the county-wide air raid alert yesterday morning left something to be desired, it was stated.

An additional siren or more volume from the ones used yesterday will be required for the warning to be audible in all parts of town.

Police Chief Bryson Turner stationed himself in the Lewis road area and failed to hear either the "red" or the all-clear signals, which were sounded on the Humane Fire company air horn and the siren atop borough hall.

With no prospects of increasing the volume on these two sirens, another one for the northern part of the borough will be needed, if the warnings are to be heard in the future.

East Germans Set Up Zone, Threaten Death to Violators

BERLIN, May 27 (AP)—The Communist East German Government today told Red secret police they could shoot to kill anyone found without proper authorization in a newly-created no-man's-land at the tense West German border.

Creation of the 3-mile-wide zone was one in a series of retaliatory moves aimed at West Germany for signing a separate peace contract with Britain, France and the U. S.

East Germany also cut off all telephone service between West Berlin and the Russian sector and some long distance lines to West Germany. It adopted a new formula for transit visas which could strangle traffic between West Berlin and the Bonn Republic.

With these steps East Germany has created machinery which requires only a little tightening to blockade Berlin.

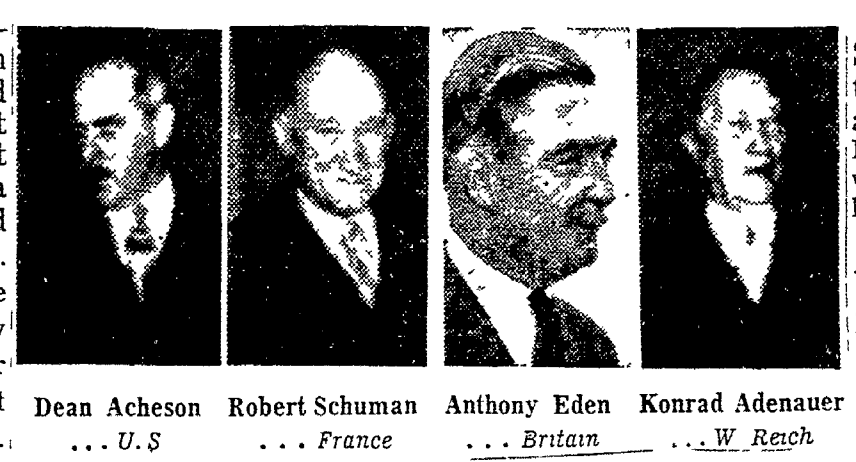

A SENIOR Allied official said: "They have now arranged things so that we have the alternative of slowly watching West Berlin wither away, put the entire place on the dole (relief), or start up an airlift (as was done in 1948-49 to break the blockade). If they claim the skies above their heads too, that's it."

In Paris, the Big Three Western powers said they would regard aggression against Berlin as a threat to their own security.

The new visa formula requires all Germans to get an East German permit before setting foot on East German soil. There are 100 miles of this soil between Berlin and the West.

Until now an agreement between the Western powers and Russia had allowed West Berlin and West-German authorities to issue inter-zonal passes for transit travel through the Russian zone in either direction.

THE POTENTIALITIES of the move were clear: 1. Every truck driver, railroad employee or canal barge operator traveling through the area would be at East Germany's mercy.

De Gasperi Forces Win Votes in Rome, But Lose to Rightists in 6 Southern Cities

ROME, May 27 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi's democratic forces retained control of Rome and assorted provincial capitals, but election tides swept six key southern cities into the hands of a Fascist-Monarchist combine today.

Pressed hard by the Communist left and the Fascist-Monarchist right, the Christian Democrats and their middle-ground allies appeared holding firmly to a majority of the 2400 municipalities which chose new councils Sunday and Monday.

However, a potential threat to De Gasperi's pro-Western national government was spotlighted by the gains of the Fascist Italian Social Movement (MSI), which venerates the memory of Mussolini, and the Monarchists (PNM), who seek the return of royalty.

They captured Naples, now Allied headquarters for southern Italy.

Metal Allotments Raised For Some Civilian Goods

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—The Government today substantially boosted metal allotments for production of television and radio sets, dishwashers, refrigerators, electric fans, home appliances and other civilian goods.

The increases are effective during the third quarter of the year—July through September.

PARIS, May 27 (AP)—Statesmen of the West signed today a series of historic agreements cementing Free Europe's defense and solemnly warning the Communist world to keep hands off.

In a day of momentous events, the representatives of 15 nations signed a series of treaties and protocols linking the full power of the North Atlantic alliance with a European army, including West Germany, and pledging the combined might of the West to fight if any one nation should be attacked.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson hailed the signing as "one of the most important and far-reaching events of our lifetime."

Six Western European nations signed a pact committing them to build a million-man army under unified command. The United States, Britain and France issued a portentous declaration in support.

The Big Three warned the Soviet Union that any attack on any part of Free Europe—including Berlin or West Germany—would be received as a threat to the security of the Big Three.

THE COMMUNISTS obviously were gathering strength throughout western Europe for the assault against this grand alliance. Germany was their main concern and Berlin the key spot.

The signing of the agreements does not mean that the European Defense Community has come into existence yet. A hard fight awaits it in the parliaments of the member nations and it may be many months before Germany begins recruiting the 400,000 men who will make up the German contribution to the European army.

During the ceremony in the French foreign ministry's ornate clock room today, Western statesmen affixed 405 signatures to nine documents concerning the structure of Western Europe's defense and co-operation. It took 55 minutes.

West Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg signed the treaty pooling their armed strength. When this is ratified by the Parliaments, perhaps by year's end, the armed forces of these countries will become a single army of a million men or more, under NATO orders.

McGranery Takes Post, Pledges Drive To Oust Wrongoers

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—James P. McGranery took over as attorney general today, promising a Government cleanup campaign but turning thumbs down on financial questionnaires.

It was the questionnaires, probing deeply into the money affairs of Federal employees, which brought about Newbold Morris' downfall as cleanup chief the past April 3. Attorney General J. Howard McGrath fired Morris and then was ousted by President Truman.

The new attorney general disposed of the issue by telling reporters that he did not feel the questionnaires were of any value.

HE SAID persons applying for jobs with the Government are carefully investigated, and that was the proper time to get any desired information.

But there will be a housecleaning, McGranery said, and wrongdoers will be prosecuted wherever they are found.

He announced that all division heads in the Justice department have been instructed to prepare forthwith reports on their divisions, with specific recommendations for the disposition of all pending cases.

All 96 U. S. district attorneys in the country, he added, will be called to Washington during the week of June 8 and asked for reports on all matters affecting the Justice department in their areas.

Ike Sinks Taft in Connecticut

By The Associated Press

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower scored nearly a clean sweep over Sen. Robert A. Taft in Connecticut yesterday and pulled up within 20 votes of Taft in the Nation-wide race for delegates to the Republican presidential nominating convention.

In Texas, Taft Republicans lowered the boom on Eisenhower forces and anti-Truman Democrats won out over pro-administration forces in bitter feuding that split the parties into four conventions.

In Chicago in July. It will then be up to the parties to decide which Lone Star State, declaring that of the rival factions to recognize New Deal Democrats tried to get Eisenhower delegates held majorities in many Texas precincts and county conventions, but when they sought to be certified, the Taft-controlled state executive committee seated Taft delegates which required that the convention all but about half a dozen of the 30-odd contests.

In Washington, the rival headquarters exchanged verbal broadsides arguing a major battle at the Chicago convention.

Taft headquarters issued a statement by Henry Zweifel, Texas national party conventions meeting GOP national committeeman who

Official Says Britain Needs More Airplanes

LONDON, Wednesday, May 28 (AP)—Aircraft maker Sir Frederick Handley Page said today it would be catastrophic for Britain to build only fighter planes, leaving the United States to produce troop transports and long range bombers.

Country club. The show is being sponsored by the Minute Men, but was underwritten by the Chamber on the advice of William A. O'Donnell Jr., Pottstown attorney, since the Minute Men are not a corporate entity. They are a part of the Chamber of Commerce but may not enter into contractual agreements.

A special meeting of the Minute Men and representatives of the Pilot Club of Pottstown will be held at the Cloverleaf restaurant at noon today to work out the details of financing the show. Plans will be made by the group to raise the funds required.

COLE BROTHERS Air Shows, of Kewanee, Ill., a group of professional flyers, will produce the show. It will follow the dedication of the field as the Pottstown Municipal airport.

Among the show's acts will be low level acrobatics in a clipped-wing light plane, parachute jumping, wing-riding and a plane take-off from the top of an automobile.

A professional announcer will be supplied by the troupe to explain the intricacies of the air maneuvers.

After appearing in Pottstown, the troupe will move on to Detroit, Mich. for the National Air Show.

THE PUPILS will return to the hotel for lunch, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon they will visit the residential uptown area of the city, St. Patrick's cathedral, Harlem and the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

Dinner will be in the hotel dining room and the day's activities will wind up with a three-hour stage and screen show in Radio City Music hall.

Friday, Memorial Day, will be the last day of the tour in New York.

The Seniors will walk to Rockefeller Center after breakfast for a guided tour of the center and a trip to the observation tower.

THEY WILL leave the terminal via the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at 4:45 p. m., transfer to the Reading in Philadelphia and arrive in Pottstown at 8:18 p. m. on Memorial Day.

The Seniors had made preparations yesterday for their humorous show to be held next Wednesday, June 2, in the school auditorium.

"A day in the life of a Pottstown High School Senior," is the theme of the show. It will be made up of about ten short skits which will run for about two hours.

The show will be under the direction of Carole Merrin and James Miller, Seniors who were also co-authors, and will include the entire senior class in the cast.

Scanlin and Mrs. Hutt, advisors of the Senior class, served in a general advisory capacity to the pupils in preparing the program although the actual planning was done by the pupils themselves.

lonia's 'Hard Luck Girl' Has Blood Clot Removed

IONIA, Mich., May 27 (AP)—It has been one bad break after another for 8-year-old Carol O'Donnell.

Once again today, however, Carol came on top.

In an hour's operation at Ionia county hospital surgeons removed a blood clot which had formed after Carol's tonsils operation last week.

Later they reported her condition "good."

State police had flown a pint of rare type O-negative blood here from Lansing for use in any emergency.

Carol has become known as Ionia's "hard luck girl."

She won admiration for bravely withstanding rheumatic fever in 1950 and polio a year later. Last year she came down with measles.

Nonetheless, Carol kept her high spirits. She even went to school although she had to be carried up and down the schoolhouse stairs.

First Grade Class Makes Journey to Laurel Locks Farms

By NANCY ORANDOSH

Mrs. I. Gordon, teacher of the first grade, told the story of the class' trip to Laurel Locks farms. In going there the pupils saw animals and their young. They were taken through the building where milk is processed and bottled. Next there were the incubators and hatcheries for chicks. After going through the farms, the children were treated to chocolate milk. They also were given bottle caps with which they could continue their study of farming by making cars and the like with these caps.

First grade is now studying about farm life. Pictures also have been drawn by the children. They draw whatever farm subject most impressed them.

ALSO, WILD life is being studied. This includes the life process of the turtle, eggs of frogs, tadpoles and others. Charles Kidon and Paul Kidon brought the different life stages of these animals to class.

There will be a party held next week before school closes.

Mrs. Khauer, another first grade teacher, is helping her class with its art scenes and farm unit. Norman Bowner has been absent from school because of an appendectomy.

Tomorrow 52 lawyers and others connected with the trial will take a day off from court to see the New York Giants play the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field.

Forders' Bob Quinn Wins Perk Bat Title

Bob Quinn, Royersford High's stellar third baseman now on loan to the George A. Amole Legion Juniors, is the 1952 Perkiomen-Schuylkill Valley league batting champion by a wide margin.

The left-swinging infielder, an average hitter a year ago, was the menace of the circuit this Spring as he belted 23 hits in 48 tries for a whopping .479 batting mark. That gave him a 47-point bulge on his nearest rival for the crown, Spring City's Paul Neborak, whose three-for-three final day boosted his mark to .432.

Quinn left no doubt, however, as he led the league in five major hitting departments. His hit total was high, as were his five triples, three homers and 21 runs batted in. He also had the most official times at bat.

Neborak, a pitcher-outfielder, maced 16 hits in 37 tries, had two doubles, a triple and eight runs batted in.

Four other regulars hit .400 or better for the season. They were Boyertown's Ernie Fronheiser (.425) and Bob Erb (.400), Pennsburg's Carl Snyder (.407) and Ron Boettger of Spring City (.400).

Royersford's Fred DePaoli led the league in runs scored with 19 and Pennsburg's Marty Leonard had the most doubles, four.

Lefty Peterson checked St. Aloysius. Then the victors broke loose, as on four hits last night as they scored three times in the fifth. Transfiguration notched an 8-2 victory in the second Sunday School League of the season. It was the second setback.

TAA took a 2-0 lead in the first inning when Merrill Shirey singled home a pair of runs, but the Als came back to knot the count on Joe Koren's two-run single in the fourth.

Merchants Upset Amvets, 6-5

Run in Home 7th Decides as Vets Boot 7 Chances

Amvet fingers turned to purest butter in the last three innings last night and it cost the Vets a 6-5 shaving at the hands of the scrambling Merchants in a City-Industrial league contest.

Victory, cemented when Howard Noble charged across the dish with two out in the seventh as Wayne Query slipped into first base under a tag, was the first for the Merchants in four games. The Vets, defending seasonal titlists, sank to their second loss in three outings.

Manager Paul Anderson, caught up in a wave of absenteeism, had to make-do with what infielders he had on the spot. They didn't do Mickey Missimer, filling in at second base, booted two and his replacement, Bill Kleman, faded him with two misplays of his own.

But it was the erring ways of a CIL veteran, third baseman Mule

Suburban League Roundup

Fords, Mounts Win, Cubs Tie

Ringling Hill stayed at the head of the Pottstown Suburban league heap on percentage points last night by playing a 1-1, nine-inning tie with Royersford, but fell a half-game behind Graterford technically as the Fords nicked Linfield, 3-2, at Linfield.

The Cubs have won four, lost one. Graterford is 6-2 for second place and Spring Mount (5-2) is a close third after edging Gilbertsville, 3-2, last night at Spring Mount.

Other action saw rejuvenated Swamp whip Sanatoga, 5-4, at behind the six-hit pitching of Don Allebach to ease home with their sixth win.

Charlie Moses slammed a home run in the Cub second inning and Frank Kolp doubled home Charlie Foreman, who had boarded on a boot in the sixth for Royersford with the only runs in the marathon in Cub park.

Lou Tesznar for the Cubs and Emidio Cinciripino for Royersford went the route. Cincy surrendered but four blows, while Tesznar gave up eight before darkness halted the skirmish.

GRATERFORD packaged its run-making into one inning as Dave King's single and an interference play at the plate helped fetch three tallies in the fourth at Sportsman Park. Then the Fords settled down behind the six-hit pitching of Don Allebach to ease home with their sixth win.

Allebach allowed only six hits in outpitching Jim Mull, whose yield was the same. Linfield got to him for singletons in the sixth and seventh, but he squirmed out of each jam adroitly.

Mull struck out 11 in his first full distance tour of the season. Swamp scored five times in the first inning on a walk and straight hits by Merrill Hook, winning hurler Laverne Gresh, Dave Ricketts, Mike Krickzy and Mike Kovach. That was enough to win.

Gresh ran into trouble in the third when he gave up three runs and had to sweat out a one-run fourth frame. After that he was runproof and polished off a five-hit win. He struck out 11.

Lefty Doug Schaeffer was the loser the second time in four decisions.

SAM LANDIS' two-out single in the seventh inning gave the Mounts their important victory over dangerous Gilbertsville and hurler Burlyn Houck. The poke scored Paul Pfeiffer, who had singled, from second base.

The Mounts scored twice in the first inning on the same Pfeiffer-Landis hit combination with help from Ken Nace and Elmer Meng.

Gilbertsville tied it up in the fifth when Heydt drove home Seip and Rickie Landis with the third and last hit off winning pitcher Russ Meyers.

Meyers' win was his second. Houck is 1-1 for the year and the Gilberts 4-3 for a fourth place tie with Swamp.

Ricketts 3 for 4 As Dukes Score

Dick Ricketts had a field day yesterday as Duquesne university defeated the University of Pittsburgh nine, 9-8.

Ricketts, former Pottstown High and Junior Legion pitcher—first baseman, banged out three hits, including a double, in four trips.

He scored two of the Dukes' runs. The six-six basketball star was

Chisox and Rogovin Blank Brownies, 3-0

ST. LOUIS, May 27 (AP)—A bases-loaded single by Ed Stewart that was good for two first-inning runs gave the Chicago White Sox a fast start tonight as they defeated the St. Louis Browns, 3-0. Ned Garver, Brownie ace of a year ago, suffered his fifth straight defeat.

That first-inning action plus Ed Robinson's fifth home run of the year to open the ninth allowed Saul Rogovin his fourth triumph against three defeats. After a shaky first inning, Rogovin settled down to shut out the Browns on six hits. He walked but one batter, and that came in the ninth.

For Garver it was another frustration attempt to gain his third victory of the season. He now has failed to do so in seven starts after pitching two shutouts to open the season.

Giants Reschedule Rained-out Games

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—The New York Giants announced today that Sunday's rained out game against the Boston Braves will be league slugging with a sparkling play Monday, Aug. 18, an open date on the schedule.

League champions have been scheduled to play at home

The Giants also have had one out of their three away from home Sunday dates postponed because of rain.

(Continued From Page Twenty-seven) fielder's choice that went awry when Missimer failed to tag second but David-both crossed as heiser erred both pinch-hitter Bob Jim Rogosky tapped a ground double inside third base.

The Vets ripped back for three runs in the sixth for a 4-3 edge. Del Egoft tapped his second single and Harry Anderson was hit by a pitch. Missimer then lined a high pitch to center to fetch Egoft.

Anderson crossed after Query went into short right to take Ed Eckert's pop and Missimer got in as Davidheiser tapped in front of the plate.

The Merchants, who stranded nine runners, used both of Klemman's errors and a single for a tie run in the same frame. Query out-logged an infield roller and went to second when Klemman-juggled Clemens' grounder.

Boughter followed with a bouncer to the same sector, and when it got through Klemman, Query crossed. It took Eckert's good backhand grab of Levengood's sinking liner two batters later to get Reis out of a more troublesome situation.

Again the Vets bounced back, man struck out. Del Egoft then hit to shortstop and Jenschke juggled and dropped Jim Rogosky's throw. While Jenschke ambled after the ball, just eight feet away, Yergler hustled home.

The Vets tapped singletons off Clemens in the next three rounds, but did nothing with them. Meanwhile, the MOPs tied a 1-1 knot in the third on three hits and a walk.

Bob Swavely singled, but was picked off first for the second out. Carl Levengood walked and scored when Jim Rogosky and Jenschke smacked successive singles back through the box.

IN THE FIFTH the Merchants took a surprising 3-1 lead after Don Boughter's single to right and a

The league-leading Moose unloaded for 16 hits and one more run last night to blast Jacobs, 17-2, in a City Softball league game at Franklin field annex.

Every Moose player save left-fielder Glutz entered in the vicious assault on Jacobs hurler Joe Zipay. Ralph Gonder and Mike Saraceni rifled out three hits each, while Jim Ottaviano collected a home run in three trips to the plate.

The Moose spotted Jacobs a 2-0 lead in the first half inning, but took the runs back with interest in shoving across four in the home first. Big inning, however, was the sixth, when Moosemen struck for six runs.

Richards and Tony Koslowski pitched the win, allowing but five hits.

Bieler's No-Hitter Wasted As PHS, Hill JVs Tie, 3-3

Lin Bieler pitched a five-inning no-hitter against The Hill jayvees yesterday at The Hill, but he and his Pottstown High jayvee had to settle for a 3-3 deadlock.

The PHS crew shoved over three runs in the first inning when straight singles by Joe Rettew, Bill Fisher and Jack Babel loaded the bases. Red Kerr forced Rettew at the plate, but a doubleplay try went for an error that plated two runs. Bieler then singled home Kerr.

Two walks and a wild pitch by Bieler let in two Hill runs in the sports, has quit the Maryland Horse Breeders association in a walk, a stolen base, a groundout dispute over one of his yearlings, and a wild pitch in the fifth.

TRY AND STOP ME
By BENNETT CERF

IT'S GEORGE JESSEL'S fancy that a slick agent from Hollywood found Adolf Hitler alive and kicking in a hideout near the Mexican border, signed him to a personal contract, and then tried to interest a major studio in hiring him as a freak attraction. "Aren't you ashamed?" admonished the studio head. "This monster is responsible for millions of lives, ruined Europe, and re-awakened prejudices that will haunt the world for generations to come—and still you want to hire him!" The agent hung his head and conceded, "So he made a small mistake..."

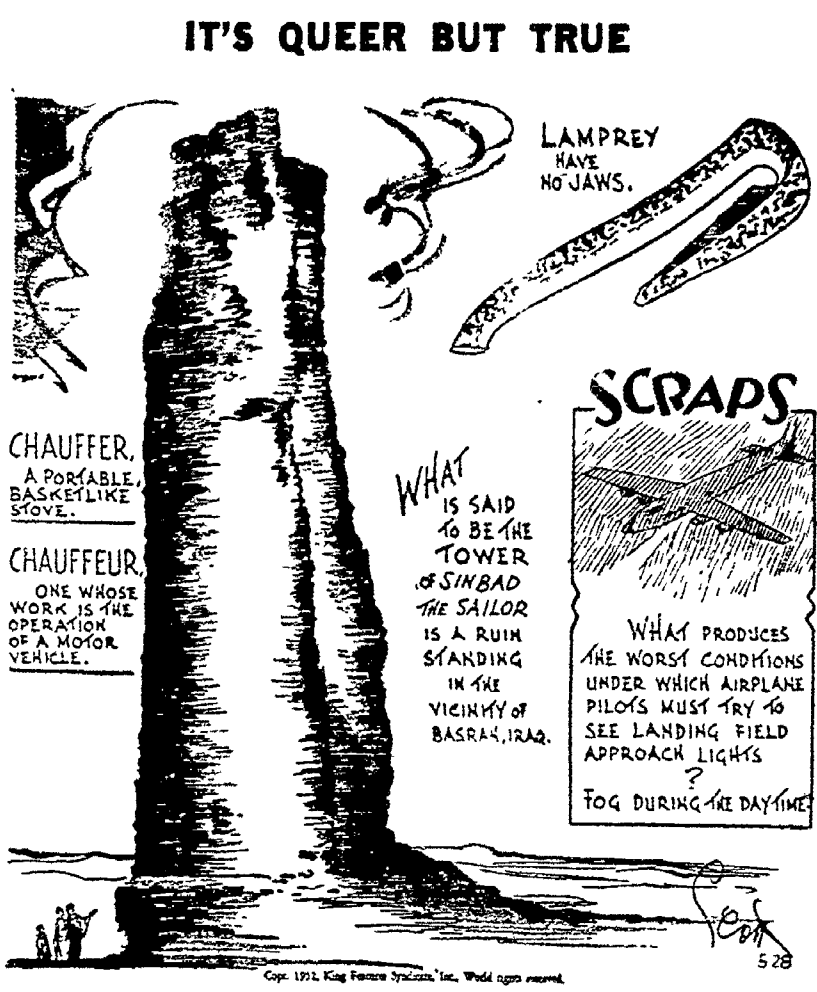

A Milwaukee pedestrian ignored a red light and miraculously emerged safely after wriggling through the heavy mid-afternoon traffic. The cop on the beat shook his head and said, "Howdy, Mr. Jaywalker." "Howdy, Officer," answered the pedestrian automatically, then did a fast double take. "What did you call me?" he asked. "Mr. Jaywalker," said the cop. The pedestrian ambled off with a puzzled frown, muttering to himself, "Wonder who he's got me mixed up with?"

Bees Blocked Traffic

W. W. Slifer, 357 Walnut street, is actually pointing at a huge mass of bees hanging from a tree in front of the home of Mrs. Millie Kirlin, 363 Walnut street, but in this photo, the section of the tree containing the bees is enlarged to bring out detail. Before the thousands of bees settled into the mass, they zoomed around the tree in such numbers that pedestrians cut across the street and through backyards to avoid them.

Cautious Pedestrians Avoid Bee Swarm On Walnut Street

A huge swarm of bees created a foot traffic problem on Walnut street between Franklin and Evans streets early yesterday afternoon. Uncountable thousands of bees zoomed around a horse chestnut tree that is in the last stages of blossoming in front of the home of Mrs. Millie Kirlin, 363 Walnut street.

While they were swarming, reported Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Slifer, 357 Chestnut street, pedestrians crossed the street or cut through backyards rather than risk a murderous barrage of stings.

"One car even turned around because of 'em," Slifer declared.

Fortunately for the neighborhood's peace of mind, Leroy C. Stillings, 359 Walnut street worked with bees, tame and otherwise, as a hobby years ago.

Late in the afternoon, he climbed a ladder and shook them from the limb into a wooden box. He maintained it wasn't dangerous.

The bees worked from this impromptu hive in Stillings' backyard until quitting time.

Group May Try Setting Up Rose Garden in Town

A public rose garden in the borough is expected to be the principal project of Pottstown Rose society in 1953.

Joseph Selagyi, chairman of the society's first annual rose show scheduled for June 7, last night said society members have talked about establishing a public rose garden.

He added, "It won't happen this year. Members feel they have enough to handle with this year's show."

Selagyi said the grounds of Pottstown and Memorial hospitals have been considered as possible sites for public gardens. He said the hospitals would provide a garden in both the East End and North End of the borough.

"The society has made no decision on a garden site, however, and probably won't make any until next year," Selagyi explained. "We would like to hear favorable expressions of other groups before we go all out."

THE SHOW committee chairman emphasized the hospital grounds only were discussed as possible sites. No official action was taken. Selagyi, who has 115 roses of 87 varieties at his 379 Walnut street home, said the society would supervise the planting of any rose garden in the borough.

Judgment Awarded To Andrews Sisters

LOS ANGELES, May 27 (AP)—The Andrews sisters, Patricia, Laverne and Maxene, of radio and television, were awarded a judgment of $157,650 today against a corporation in which they own three-fourths of the stock.

Superior Judge Frank G. Swain awarded the judgment to the sisters against the Andrews Sisters Eight to the Bar Ranch, incorporated, in which their former manager, Lou Levy, formerly wed to Maxene, owns one fourth of the stock.

The sisters told the court they entered into an agreement in 1946 with the corporation under which they assigned the concern all their royalties from Decca Records, incorporated, and the corporation agreed to pay them $50,000 each at the rate of $10,000 a year.

Patricia said the corporation owed her $44,265. Laverne said $42,254 was due her, Maxene $71,130.

street home, said the society would supervise the planting of any rose garden in the borough.

He pointed out planting must be done in the Fall.

The rose show will be presented in the YWCA gym on June 7 from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. Selagyi said Burgess William A. Griffith has been asked to declare June 7 Rose Day in Pottstown.

Taft Is Confident In S. D. Primary

RAPID CITY, S. D., May 27 (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft, of Ohio says the June 3 South Dakota presidential primary contest is close, but he wound up his bid for the 14 Republican delegates with confidence.

As he left for Washington after a five-day tour through the State he said: "Naturally I'm confident that I am going to win in a very close contest."

Sen. Taft is competing with Gen. Dwight Eisenhower for the delegates.

Today in Sioux Falls, Sen. James Duff (R-Pa.) who came to campaign for Eisenhower, charged Taft supporters with conducting the most vicious campaign against the general "that I have ever seen in my lifetime in politics."

Sen. Duff told newsmen he was "not charging Sen. Taft himself with conducting a smear campaign."

In his final South Dakota appearance here Taft made an obvious reference to Gen. Eisenhower's failure to campaign when he said "I don't see where anyone can make an intelligent decision unless I give my views."

Large Hole Appears On Surface of Sun

FAENZA, Italy, Wednesday, May 28 (AP)—A hole big enough to contain several planets the size of the earth has appeared in the surface of the sun, Benda observatory reported today.

It said the hole would be visible until June 4, and can be seen if the eye is screened with dark glasses.

New Jet Plane Guns Are Seen for Air Force

HONOLULU, May 27 (AP)—The Air Force's research boss hinted today new jet fighter guns soon may be tried in Korea.

"We have some new gun types coming up," Lieut. Gen. Earle E. Partridge, head of the air research and development command, told a news conference. "We want to find out what the boys in Korea think of them."

Partridge and James H. Doolittle, wartime Eighth Air Force commander in Britain and now civilian research adviser to the Air Force, stopped here enroute for a two-week study visit in Japan and Korea.

Air force jet fighters in Korea now are equipped with 50 caliber machineguns. "We made the decision some time ago to stick with .50 caliber," said Partridge, "and we haven't been sorry."

WEDNESDAY, MAY 28, 1952

A loving heart is the beginning of all knowledge.—Thomas Carlyle.

Political Pot Boils

SO far as the Republicans are concerned, the ending of the primary season finds the situation about as the forecasters expected. In pledged delegates, Eisenhower and Taft are, to all practical purposes, on an equal footing. Taft has a few more than his chief rival—but the lead is too small to be significant. Neither man has anywhere near enough to assure nomination. Only one other active candidate can now be taken seriously. That is Governor Warren, who would have a good chance in the unlikely event that Taft and Eisenhower cancel each other out. Stassen is far weaker than he was four years ago.

From the point of view of the political writer, the Democratic situation is extremely interesting. The only candidate who has shown any ability to attract a national following is Kefauver. He has amazed the old-line professionals, who were certain that his balloon would collapse ignominiously. Instead, he has had only one minor setback, in Florida, and even there he made a better showing against the popular Russell than was anticipated. If proven public sentiment meant a thing, he would be a cinch for the nomination. But the top administration brass wants no part of him and the chances are that they'll be able to stop him at the convention—something they couldn't do in the primaries. Potent powers within the party are behind Averill Harriman. But, politically speaking, he is a question mark. He has never run for office. He is a quiet, undramatic figure who has, so far as anyone can now see, no public following of any size. There is a very real possibility that the Democratic convention will be deadlocked, and will finally choose someone who is rarely if ever mentioned now—such as Speaker of the House Rayburn.

Many Republicans still seem to feel that it's all over but the shouting—that their man, whoever he is, is practically a cinch to defeat any available Democrat. This, of course, was also felt in 1948, and the more objective political observers think that those who still hold it may be due for a painful awakening. The Democratic candidate will run on the Truman platform. The President, regardless of how badly his prestige may have slipped, will be the biggest force at the convention. All of the possible candidates have endorsed Mr. Truman's so-called "fair deal."

People who want to unseat the Democrats often make the dangerous mistake of considering only the administration's political liabilities—and disregarding its political assets. The Democratic platform of 1952 will be, so far as basic principles are concerned, much the same platform with which Mr. Truman ran to victory in 1948 when almost no one gave him a chance. From the Republican viewpoint, overconfidence could be politically suicidal.

Prices and Incomes

IT is something of an economic axiom that the price of any article is determined largely by how much there is of it—and how badly people want it. That fact has led to a considerable amount of confusion in the public mind. Take, for example, so simple and so widely-consumed a product as pork chops. The housewife will argue that the price of these chops is way too high—and automatically reason from that that all meat prices are too high.

Actually, pork chops are expensive because there are so few of them. After a 240-pound hog is butchered and processed, only about 150 pounds of pork products are left for the butcher to sell. And only 10 pounds of those products are center cut pork chops—the cuts most people like best.

So it is entirely natural and inevitable that the chops cost substantially more than other pork products which are just as nutritious. A tremendous amount of misinformation has been making the rounds concerning the meat price situation. If you told the average housewife that meat costs less now than it did in the 30's she'd look on you as a candidate for the booby hatch.

But meat does cost a little less—if the price is measured in proportion to family incomes, which is the only accurate yardstick.

Blame Shifted

To the Editor: In regard to these people who write to Readers Say about drunken driving: They class a drunken driver much worse than a man who is a murderer or a man who lies and steals. If some of these unthinkable people would have their say, a drunken driver would die in the electric chair. In some cases, if a man involved in an accident only had a drink or two and is sober, he will be accused of drunken driving. It may not be his fault. But he is blamed. I honestly do not believe a man should drive when drinking. I would like to ask all those people who wrote in against drunken driving: Would you people please write in to the "Readers Say" column and answer these questions?

1. In the last six years how many people were killed and how many people crippled for life, also seriously injured as well as property damages caused by drunken driving?

2. In the Pottstown area, how many people were killed and how many people were crippled for life, also seriously injured as well as property damages caused by 'teen-age drivers in the last six years. When you answer this honestly you will find the answer to the worst cause of accidents. When they catch a drunken driver they get the full benefit of the law and remember it. But: when these 'teen-age drivers are caught in a serious accident, they are mostly given a hearing, then forgotten about and they continue to carry on until someone innocent pays with their life or is crippled. So just look back over a 6-year period and please write and let us know which has the worse record, and need looking into and jailing the most. Or, just drive around town and see which face you find the most of. I see these reckless kids in town every day, weaving in and out or doing the craziest things with cars you could dream of. So if you people would complain as much about the 'teen-age drivers as you do the drunken driver, you could help a lot in getting them to drive safely and save a lot of heartache in the future. Chamber Slipped Up

To the Editor: I think that the chamber of commerce could do at least invited all the girls who were in the queen contest to the bicentennial ball at Sunnybrook. It was certain that they could not all win but some of them tried very hard to get their votes. I know there are others who will agree with me as I have talked to them about it. Pottstown H.E.M.

Can't Buy Peace

To the Editor: While men clamor for peace on one hand, they arm for World War III on the other and trust in no one, not even God. Not all the faults are to be found in foreign lands or enemy camps, but many of our troubles have roots in our own beloved America. It isn't any wonder that peace is so difficult to attain when in our own country there is moral decay and crime manifest in both our social and business worlds. Peace cannot be bought with guns and money. Perkiomenville W. S.

WASHINGTON
Administration Plans New Invasion of Big Business

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, May 27—Another futile but threatening invasion of private industry has been undertaken by the Truman Administration, but so indirectly and subtly that only owners and executives of the companies faced with federal competition or absorption are aware of it.

Although this new scheme for bureaucratic expansion is still in the embryo stage, it follows the same tactics by which the government has become a major producer and retailer of electric power. It is known here as the "foot in the door" or "nose under the tent" strategy.

The latest adventure in paternalism involves the telephone industry in the nation's rural and suburban communities. It has been inaugurated by the Rural Electrification Administration in an attempt to preserve that agency as a permanent concern.

Unless REA finds a new field for expansion, it will soon become only a minor appendage instead of a bureau in Agriculture or some other department, for it has electrified 90 percent of American farms. Having fulfilled its statutory function, it must find more work to do somehow.

LOANS: REA has solved this life-and-death problem by initiating a program of loans to rural cooperatives for purchase of local telephone systems, of which there are about 6000 in the United States. They serve such units as towns, cities, counties. In certain sections, such as western New York, the Middle West and Hollywood, they are substantial firms.

In only two years Administrator Claude R. Wickard has loaned approximately $31,000,000 to 54 co-ops to buy out commercial firms. For the current fiscal year he has the sum of about $34,000,000 for this purpose. Incidentally, one of the first operations of this kind swallowed up the telephone service in Wickard's home town of Camden, Ind.

The amendment giving REA this authority and funds was first introduced in 1945 by Senator Lester Hill of Alabama, but it did not become law until 1949. It attracted such scant notice that when the heads of these independent companies were warned of its possible implications, they paid no attention.

The Hill proposal was simply designed to make Wickard's agency a sort of RFC for rural telephone firms, enabling them to expand and survive, and to improve service to customers. But, as REA has done in the field of power by methods under attack in the courts, the government agency is now collaborating with the co-ops to create a telephone system rivaling commercial lines. It is understood that these government-financed operations are being integrated so that they may become a serious threat to private interests on a large scale. Wickard's long-range plans are revealed by his creation of a new "telephone division" in REA.

COMPETITION: The problem of government competition was first discussed seriously by the industry when the Independent Telephone Company Executives held their national convention at Colorado Springs early this month. Regional reports reflected their fears over the situation.

Instead of using REA funds to modernize their own systems, the co-ops are buying out commercial firms, with federal encouragement. They can offer such fancy prices that owners find it difficult to refuse to sell. By promising improved and expanded service, the co-ops jack up rates to customers. They can do so easily because they are immune from state regulation.

In the past the private companies have shied from borrowing from Wickard. Ninety-one have obtained only $23,000,000 a far smaller proportion than the co-ops have got from the government.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
LOUISE J., 32, is married to a man of 48. "Dr. Crane, Harry treats me terribly," she sobbed in my office recently. "He comes home from work and may never say a word to me all evening. "Or if he does speak, he usually criticizes my cooking or calls me names because I don't have the house as clean as he would like it.

"Sometimes he swears at me and tells me I am crazy. He often threatens that he is going to leave me. "Last night he came home glum and irritable. He ate his supper in silence; then sat down to read the paper. "As he was planning to go to bed about 8 o'clock, I asked him if he would drive me to church first, for I was late and had promised to attend a women's meeting there. "Then he growled at me for never staying at home, so I told him it was all right, for I was so late I might just as well stay home anyway. "But he finally told me to throw on my things in a hurry and he'd drive me over to church. "Dr. Crane, he never says anything nice to me and my life is miserable."

"DID YOU THANK him for driving you to church?" I inquired. "I should say not! After all the mean things he had said to me and the way he has treated me lately, why should I?" she asked angrily. "How do you ever expect a man to do you a favor if you refuse to thank him for it?" I countered. "If a neighbor had driven you to the church, wouldn't you have at least thanked him as you alighted from the car?" and she acknowledged that she would have.

So I told her to pay deserved compliments to Harry and be liberal with a "thank you" whenever he did her a favor. Somebody must break the ice and start the process of being polite or grateful. Louise had suffered much psychological pain or "mental cruelty" I freely admit. But she will never correct the situation by refusing to be courteous or grateful when Harry finally does her a favor. She seems to think that his gracious action today simply offsets his surly behavior yesterday, so she owes him no gratitude. Mathematically, that might be correct, but psychologically she should try to praise her husband into the approved course of action. Her husband is at the menopausal age and isn't made happier about his condition by seeing that she is younger, pretty and vivacious. Like most women, she doesn't realize the psychological change through which he is going. So she meets his surliness with an equally sharp retort. As a result, they are both angry at each other. Neither gains anything desirable by such fighting.

June Advice...
Has Face Lifted...

★ JUNE BRIDE STUFF—No effort this to douse cold water on June plans, but many men and women do not take sufficient time to study each other before getting married today, says Coronet magazine. "In this atomic era of speed," according to Patty deRouff, author of the article "Don't Rush Into Problem Marriages," "teenagers are tending to marry just for the thrill—the wedding, the honeymoon and the novelty of playing house." Both sexes of today, says Miss deRouff, are guilty of looking upon the marriage ceremony as an escape from an unpleasant surrounding and they are hopeful that "a magic wand will produce happiness." But they must be happy well-adjusted people first and must make certain that they really want each other. . . . DR. ABRAHAM Stone of New York City's Marriage Consultation Center, mentions two factors that must be present beforehand for a happy marriage. They are: (1) Companionship—the sharing of plans, the similarity of interests, spiritual compatibility. (2) Home and family—there should be a definite desire for a family life. The Coronet article concludes by advising married people who have difficulties not to wait but to pay a visit to a marriage counselor who in a short time will find a happy solution. . . . ★ LIFTS FACE 11 TIMES—A well-known Hollywood actress has had her face lifted 11 times! Dr. Robert Alan Franklyn, noted Hollywood plastic surgeon, reveals this and other equally-startling facts in an Esquire article. Franklyn refers to a plastic surgeon's office as a depository for "the wackiest and weirdest group of female zombies the world has ever known." Franklyn relates the strange and psychopathic career of the face of one he calls "Bunny." Bunny is 55. She never had more than bit parts, but she knows her break will come "tomorrow." Bunny has demanded and gotten an Ingrid Bergman nose, and then an Elizabeth Taylor model. After the premier of "Sunset Boulevard," she was sure a Gloria Swanson nose was the answer to her problems. . . . THERE IS one character who has her face remodeled every time she changes husbands! She recently married No. 6, so she's kept the doctors busy. Another started her cosmetic therapy by getting a Hedy Lamarr nose, then Katherine Hepburn cheekbones, Lana Turner-ish ears and finally, a Bette Davis chin. After this infiltration course was run, she decided she wanted to change the cheekbones to the Marlene Dietrich type. Fortunately, she was then delivered into the hands of a psychoanalyst. . . . ★ DIABETICS TAKE CARE—While it is perfectly all right for most diabetics to drive cars, they should take certain precautions for their own safety and that of others on the road, urges Dr. Louis I. Dublin. With more than 1,000,000 diagnosed diabetics in the United States, and an estimated million more who have the disease but do not know it, there are many cars being driven by diabetics. A diabetic driver who uses insulin should take a snack while driving. A couple of crackers or an orange every hour or two helps to avoid insulin reactions. No diabetic patient should drive at any time he feels ill. And the diabetic, more than anyone else, must adhere rigidly to the rule never to take alcohol before or during a drive.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMANN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.
IF YOUR child keeps complaining of a headache, or pain in the eyes, it is a good precaution to take him to the doctor for an examination. Eye disturbances can cause headache in some cases. Don't be surprised; however, if the doctor cannot find any cause for headache, and there is nothing wrong with the child's eyes. The real cause of many headaches and eye disturbances in children can be traced to upset emotions. . . . In such case, one should never brush off the complaint as "due to nothing!" When an emotional difficulty can cause a headache, or even lead a child to complain of headache, it is time to look for the real trouble. Children with good vision often complain of headache or eye pain to gain care and attention from their parents. Usually, a first-born child feels neglected when his place is taken by a new baby, and he may resort to an eye disturbance to attract attention. Children who are slow readers also have emotional problems leading to headaches. Many times, parents think a child fails to read well because he does not wear the right glasses. Often it takes many changes of glasses to make them realize that glasses do not help a slow reader, unless there is some real eye defect. It has been reported that actual eye defects cause very few symptoms in children, and over half the children who complain of eye troubles do not need glasses. In one series of children brought to the doctor for difficulties of vision, less than half had real eye defects, and these were easily corrected. The rest had normal vision, though they complained of various symptoms. The commonest complaint was headache. Others said their eyes hurt. In such cases, the average parent would tend to blame the disturbance on the eyes or sinuses, and not suspect the emotions. A child's emotional difficulty often can be readily solved if the family physician is given a chance to discuss it with the parents and the child. The slow reader needs trained teachers, not impatience or threats.
